Artist, Songwriter, Musician, Dreamer

Monica Newell studied Art, Theater and Film in Richmond, Virginia and Portland, Oregon. She has quietly and blissfully resided in Rappahannock County for 17 years and is the former Proprietor of the Monster Art Gallery and White Owl Gallery in Sperryville, Virginia.

Dedicated to her passion Monica lives, breathes and paints the dream. Working in mixed media, collage and acrylic and oils. A mother and a teacher, Monica embraces the philosophy of freeing one's spirit through the gift of art: uninhibited creation as the way to freedom within.
