

Joan Wiberg is an oil painter working plein air and in the studio in the colder months in Virginia. A native Virginian, she attended college for art and education and taught art to children in public and private schools. Now a full time artist, she devotes her time to painting on location and is an active member of the Firnew Farm Artist's Circle. Her art is displayed at Middle Street Gallery in Little Washington, VA and Cottage Curator, in Sperryville, VA. She resides in Fauquier County.
