

Photography to me is about seeing with light and dark, colors or black and white, and shapes or patterns. I enjoy painting by moving the camera on purpose or adding creative patterns to an image to create art after capturing an image in the camera.