

Over the past several years, I have been drawn to I-Phone photography as a powerful creative tool. My portfolio reflects my strong interest in color and composition. It also draws on my extensive domestic and foreign travels, and visual stimulation from my home locations in Sperryville, VA and Ann Arbor, MI.