Riverside Trees

30" x 40"

oil on canvas 2025

$7250

"Riverside Trees" is an imaginative and luminous canvas, an intentional homage to American landscape painter George Innes updated with a feeling of contemporary verve. Light and shade border on the abstract at times, and the scene evokes natural processes, and suggests how we dream them.

Thomas Spande is a realist painter working in oil as well as pencil and watercolor since the 1980's. Scenes of Piedmont Virginia and coastal America are central to him as are works of the human figure and animals.
